2. Source said he formerly belonged to the DRE, but after Playa Giron it disintegrated. Nevertheless, he said, he was able to keep in contact with a few DRE people who are in Havana. He said details on the DRE could be obtained from Manuel Salvat, but he did state that he belonged to the DRE group headed by a brother of Diaz Lanz. This brother is still in Havana. He said this group wants to engage in political assassination, and has repeatedly requested that pistols with silencers be sent from the United States.

3. Source said that his cousin, Salvador Jomolca, is a guerrilla leader in Las Villas Province, more specifically, operating between Matanzas and Corralillo. He said that his cousin is a lieutenant about 30 years old. He has a small group, few arms, and very little ammunition. He is trying to get outside help but there is no method of communicating with him.

4. Source said that Salvador Jomolca is married to a daughter of "Campito", the elder. (Comment: A previous source reported that there are two "Campito"s, a father and his son. The son is the most reported upon guerrilla leader, the father apparently only accompanying the son.)
